

Bletsoe Bulletin Week 10

Hi Everyone

We're into double figures it being Week 10. Slowly things are beginning to unlock. Children will be going back to school soon with very different rules in place. Shops will be open for some with new rules and regulations on self distancing. It will be a very different world out there!!

Don't Forget

- Village hall emergency supplies are still available – all items are at cost price!
- Let us know if you need a prescription picking up urgently. Jenny will continue to deliver the regular ones.
- The monthly Rural Grunch has become the Daily Grunch and can be accessed (if you have the technology) on <http://www.grassrootspublications.co.uk>
- Thursday night clapping for the NHS – it has been suggested that this might be the last week!

Plant Stall on the Avenue

Last chance to buy plants this week. The plant stall will be closing this coming Sunday but will be open all this week! Thank you to Alison and Joyce for such a wonderful supply.

Book Swap Depot

Thank you to all those who have donated books or indeed have borrowed books! Keep them coming and swapping! Jigsaws have been donated as well so feel free to borrow!

Weekly services

Service sheets are currently distributed to church members but are also available in the bus shelter if you would like to pick up a copy!

War Memorial Centenary

Watch out for flyers regarding the celebration of the centenary of the War Memorial.

Sunflowers are growing around the village!!! Watch out for the tallest later in the summer!!

If you have any additional information you feel should be added to the weekly bulletin, please call 781161 to have it included or email info@bletsoe.net