

Bletsoe Bulletin

Week 9

Hi Everyone

Easing of lockdown seems to have started and even the talk of children returning to school. Will life ever be the same?? Questions we will all be asking. However, the sun is still shining and we are still experiencing some beautiful days thankfully. Remember to call a friend if you need a chat or 781161 – will be nice to keep in touch.

Don't Forget

- Village hall emergency supplies are still available
- Call 781161 by Wednesday to order your fresh veg from Abrahams and it will be delivered to your door!
- Church Services are still taking place every week – all on line or if preferred hard copies can be delivered. Log into the St Mary's Facebook page to find out more or go to the <https://youtu.be/C2PuDTIroyU> You can also call James on 708234.
- Weekend plant stall continues to do well – tomato plants are currently for sale!
- Bank Holiday on Monday! Just like any other day at the moment!
- To stay safe

Book Swap Depot

From this Thursday there will be a book swap depot at the bus shelter. Please feel free to borrow, swap or donate books during this time when the library van does not visit.

Bedford Borough Council Active Minds Scheme

To help during lockdown if you are interested in receiving items such as jigsaws, board games or craft items which are being collected and are re distributed by the Community Hub team at Bedford Borough Council, please call us on 781161 and we will arrange the contact for you.

War Memorial Centenary

Watch out for flyers regarding the celebration of the centenary of the War Memorial which will be on Saturday 13 June.

If you have any additional information you feel should be added to the weekly bulletin, please call 781161 to have it included or email info@bletsoe.net
