

Bletsoe Bulletin Week 12

Hi Everyone

The last bulletin for a while! As we slowly come out of lockdown there is less need for a weekly update. However, for the next couple of months there will be one on the first Wednesday which will include any information which might be useful to all. It is hard to believe we have gone through twelve weeks! It has passed so quickly!

Don't Forget

- All previous offers of help still stand – call 781161
- Post Office Van – every Thursday from 1.30 – 3.00pm
- The Book Swap Depot - please continue to use
- Prescriptions can still be delivered to you

St Mary's Church Partial Re-opening

As from next week the church will be open for private prayer only at the following times:

Tuesday – 10.00am – 12.00 noon

Thursday – 2.00pm – 4.00pm

Saturday – 10.00am – 12.00 noon

The church will follow all the necessary restrictions and you will be directed on your arrival.

There will be a maximum number allowed during each session.

The church will continue to offer both hard copy and on-line access to the regular Sunday Services. Call James on 708234 if you would like to be included in the circulation.

Post Office Van

Is here this week but will not be here on the 15th and 22nd June due to van maintenance.

War Memorial Centenary

Watch out for final details of the event on Saturday 20 June which will be circulated next week! Let's hope for fine weather! There is still an opportunity if you would like to be part of the Centenary celebration. Call Mike on 781161 if you would like to do a relevant reading or say a poem. It would be great to have as much village involvement as possible!

Bunting

It was the intention of the 2020 Fete Committee that as many people in the village as possible would decorate their houses with personal bunting. As it is Fete Week next week now is your opportunity even though the Fete has had to be cancelled! Just for fun!

Thanks

Thank you to all those villagers who have offered to help and indeed have helped over the past weeks. You are all very much appreciated.

Next Bulletin

The next bulletin will be issued on the first Wednesday in July.

Stay safe and take care.
